LIFE-SAVER DOXSEE DEAD.

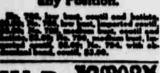

Capt. John T. Donnes, Captain of the Fire Island Life-Saving Station, was found dead in bed to-day in the New Cortlandt House at Bay Shore. Coroner Moore said death resulted from gas as-Moore said death resulted from gas as-physiation, but gave no particulars. Capt. Donnee was about seventy years old and one of the oldest men in the life-saving service. He helped have lives when the steamer Indus went ashers in 1965 and also at the wreck of the Drumeinier in 1997. When the hig-gest sailing vessel, the Rickmars, grounded in 1997 Capt. Donnee and his men performed good services, as also when the Princess Irene went ashers two years ago.

Climate Falled: Medicine Effective

Reat, fresh air and well-cooked, neurishing food do help many persons suffering with Lung Trouble. But in many cases the disease is only temporarily "arrested," and something more is needed. Eckman's Alterative is a medicine for Throat and Lung Troubles and has brought about many complete recoveries—in many cases where the surroundings were not ideal. Judging by the many reports of recoveries received, we believe it should be used in every case of Lung Trouble. A remarkable case follows:

More than a score of witnesses gathrancy was not with John J. Dowling, the actual slayer of McBreen, the night IN MURDER HEARING the murder was committed, McBreen, better known as "Paddy the Priest," kept a saloon at Fifty-third street and Seventh avenue. Dowling made a con-fession that he and Mulraney attempted to rob the cash register in the saloon when McBreen was killed. Two witnesses testified before Judge Rosalsky yesterday that an hour before the killing of McBreen they had found Mulraney insensible from drink at One Hundred and Ninth street and Lexington avenue. They took him to his mother's house, in East One Hundred Judge Rosalsky, in General Sessions dred and Seventeenth street and left

Mulraney, new in the death house at street told that the day after the mur-her daughter-in-law, Mulraney was there with Doling and another man. They were discussing white had happened the night before. The stranger told Mulraney that Dowling had "slugged" a man. At the end of the talk Dowling pulled two revolvers from his porket, laid them on the table and left the room. Mrs. Patrick said she reprimanded Mulraney for being in such company. Mulraney, she said, told her he had just met them outside.

Mrs. Emma Davison of Caldwell, N. J., testified that at the time of the murder she was employed as a chambe maid in the Lastiania Hotel, Lexingto avenue and Twenty-fourth street, and that on the night of Oct. 3 while stepmen helping a drunken man up Lex-his family well. The boys said they with the exception of J. Pierpont Morwould take him home and I went on my way. Next morning I stopped at his mother s'house and saw him there. He was in the yard." The hearing will occupy Judge Rosal-sky's attention for several days.
